PARISH LENT APPEAL 2025: EALING CHURCHES WINTER NIGHT SHELTER

Our Parish Lenten Project this Jubilee Year ties in with the theme 'Pilgrims of Hope' as we help to support the life-changing work Ealing Winter Night Shelter (ECWNS) do to alleviate homelessness. ECWNS impact the wider community by offering a unique service to the borough's rough sleepers, providing food, a safe and warm space to sleep, and, importantly companionship, every night to 14 people from November to March each year. Ealing Abbey has been supporting ECWNS since 2013.

By giving to Ealing Churches Winter Night Shelter, you are helping to provide emergency shelter and on-going support to Ealing's rough sleeper community. ECWNS will be speaking at 6pm mass – Saturday, 15th March (Chantella) and 9am, 10.30am, 12noon and 7pm masses (Nilesh and Jill Coombs)– Sunday 16th March 2025.

Bring Hope on the Journey to Easter supporting ECWNS. To donate: Scan the QR code or visit the donations page or our Lenten Appeal page at: ealingabbeyparish.uk/parish-lenten-appeal-2025/
